

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 8, 1892.

Sun rises to-morrow at 6:59; sun sets at 5:01. High water 11:11 a. m. and 11:12 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this season fair Wednesday and Thursday, much colder, westerly winds.

THE ELECTION TO-DAY has progressed quietly, and though the interest taken by both parties has been earnest and no labor has been shirked, in order to bring out a full vote everything has been done decently and in order. Notwithstanding the fact that it was said the republicans had no organization here, most of them voted, as did a large majority of negroes. Some of the latter class whose names had been erased from ward registers on account of removal, &c., appeared and undertook to cast ballots, but when denied votes the U. S. deputy marshal, finding that the commissioners were acting strictly legally, did not interfere. The large vote cast by the colored men showed that active work had been done among them, though in a quiet way, and the numbers who, after a long absence, suddenly made their appearance at the polls showed that the word had been sent down from Washington. The democrats have been exceedingly zealous and hope to roll up a handsome majority for Cleveland, Stevenson and Meredith. The weather has been all that could be desired for an election day, and the probabilities are that the same meteorological conditions have prevailed throughout the State. To-night the telegraph offices, the Musical Association rooms and the Opera House will be opened, where dispatches from all parts of the country will be read, and it will probably be midnight before the result of the contest can be accurately learned. The following shows the voting in this city up to four o'clock:

1st ward, 2d, 3d, 4th, Total.
White, 417 322 822 533 2,104
Colored, 132 88 398 247 865

R. E. LEE CAMP.—The regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans was held last night with a large attendance of members. Commander Smoot presiding.

An application from a former member of the 17th Virginia regiment for admission to the Soldiers' Home at Richmond was referred to a committee for investigation.

The application of John A. Demaine, of McGregor's Battery, Stuart's Horse Artillery, for membership, was referred to an appropriate committee.

Comrade W. H. May, on behalf of the Bethel Cemetery Company, presented to the Camp a deed to lot No. 170, section E, in that cemetery, for which the Adjutant was instructed to tender the thanks of the Camp. The Camp also purchased from the Bethel Company an additional lot, adjoining.

The Commander alluded in a feeling manner to the sad inroads made by death in the ranks of the Camp during the last few weeks in the deaths of J. W. Waters, Seabury D. Smith, R. Henry Simpson, John Nightingall, John Sullivan and Thomas B. Hudson.

A communication from S. A. Cunningham, of Nashville, Tenn., in reference to a contribution to the monument to ex-President Davis to be erected in Richmond, Va., was laid over for future action.

Considerable business of a private nature was also transacted.

THE GAMBLERS.—In the police court in Washington yesterday one of the witnesses, while describing the raid made on the gamblers at Jackson City on Saturday evening, was asked by the Judge: "What became of you?" "I wasn't there when the raid was made," he replied. "We got word the night before that the raid was going to be made, and so we moved out what we had and remained away until after the raid was made."

A gentleman from the county who was in the city yesterday said that the raid at Jackson City on Saturday was only a blind, and was intended to capture the small fry and let the big fish go free. He also said that a plan had been arranged to arrest some of the gamblers there who are wanted in Washington and hold them under the State laws so as to prevent them being turned over to the Washington authorities on requisitions.

PERSONAL.—Cards are out for the marriage of Miss Carrie Mortimer Cook and Mr. Henry Ward Moncre, November 16 at Epiphany Church, Washington.

Col. Morton Myer and Mr. J. S. B. Thompson came here to-day from Richmond to cast their ballots for Cleveland.

Maj. H. W. Newby is in the city on a short visit. He came from Avoca, Pa., to vote for Cleveland.

Mr. Geo. H. Hayden, of this city, one of the guards at the penitentiary, is here, having come home to vote for Cleveland. He wears the new uniform recently adopted by the officers of the penitentiary.

Capt. G. A. Mushbach left to-day for New York on professional business and incidentally to see how the election returns are received in the metropolitan city.

WATER COMPANY MEETING.—The annual meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Alexandria Water Company was held last night, when the old officers were re-elected as follows: B. Wheat, president; T. D. Fendall, secretary and treasurer; F. J. Power, superintendent, and B. Wheat, E. L. Dainfield, Walter Roberts, George S. French, J. J. Jamieson, Thomas Leadbeater and Hubert Snowden directors. The reports of the officers show that over 3,000 feet of new water mains have been laid during the year; that further extensions are in progress; that there has been a gratifying increase in the number of water renters, and that arrangements are now being perfected for diverting the stream which flows into the race and against which so much complaint has been made. A semi-annual dividend of $2.50 per share was declared.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was rainy and mild with three prisoners and three lodgers at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Samuel Johnson, disorderly conduct, at the Opera House, $5.

Bridget Chapman, drunk and disorderly, ordered to leave the city.

Patrick Crocen, drunk on the streets, $2.50.

Wm. Anderson, racing his horse through the streets, $1.

Lucy Thornton, colored, disorderly on street, $2.50.

The case of Henry Majors, charged

GOOD TEMPLARS.—The hall of Talisman Lodge I. O. G. T. presented a most pleasing sight last night, the occasion being the public quarterly installation of officers, with other incidental exercises. After the transaction of the regular routine business of the evening the newly-elected officers were installed by the Lodge Deputy Mr. J. R. Mansfield. Following the installation exercises a vocal and literary programme was enjoyed by all present, the participants acquitting themselves very creditably. During the evening Rev. W. H. McAllister, of Trinity M. E. Church, delivered an interesting lecture, which was replete with a wonderful flow of eloquence and oratory.

THE A. L. I.—At a meeting of the Alexandria Light Infantry last night a committee of seven was appointed to confer with the lady friends of the company in reference to holding a fair and the date was left to be fixed by the committee. A plan was also decided upon in reference to raising the mortgage on the armory building and for obtaining money to repair that building. The company decided to retain their gray uniform, but instructed Capt. Mushbach when he attended the meeting of the State military board to use his discretion in voting on the subject.

SHOOTING AFFAIR.—A white man named George Poulton, a northern man and said to be an officeholder, shot and fatally wounded a negro named Wm. Rust this afternoon near Chippinupin Hollow, a few miles west of this city on the Leesburg Turnpike. The men, with some others, left this city this morning and got in a row. Poulton finally shot at one of the negroes, but missing him shot Rust. Poulton was arrested and brought to this city.

THE JANITORSHIP.—As heretofore stated Mayor Strauss has temporarily appointed Mr. John Craven as janitor of the Market Building to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his grand father, Mr. J. C. Nightingall. Already there are several candidates for the position, which is to be filled by Council, among them being Messrs. Ford, Knight, James Hepburn, Jno. Craven and others.

BILLY WILLIAMS, now serving a five years' term in the penitentiary on the charge of having killed Police Officer Arnold in this city, will be released January next. It is said that he will come to Alexandria and start a knitting manufactory on a small scale.

OPERA HOUSE.—In "Little Nugget," the comedy to be presented to-night, is to be found an interesting plot from beginning to end, upon which is strung a variety of new songs, solos, duets, and specialties. "You laugh 'till the tears run down your face. The humor is so clever and so 'touchy' that the most morbid mortal would join in the general merriment. The singing is good, and the clogging very fine.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Cleveland weather we had to-day.

The police to-day had a wagon, at their disposal.

Mr. R. H. Havener to-day received a barrel of fine Fairfax county cider.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Washington McNeal and Ella Payne, both of Orange county.

A colored man was arrested in the Third ward to-day charged with illegally attempting to vote, but he was soon released.

A colored man, while under the influence of liquor this evening on south Washington street, cut a colored boy, but not seriously. He was arrested.

The boys will have bonfires to-night, no matter who is elected. During the past few nights they have stolen nearly every ash box and barrel in the city and will burn them to-night.

Superintendent of Schools Carne and Superintendent-elect Kemper to-day visited all of the male public schools of the city and both made addresses to the teachers and pupils. On Friday they will visit the female schools.

The republican tickets distributed in this city to-day had the name of B. B. Turner, the third party candidate for Congress, printed on them. But many a republican took pleasure in scratching his name from the ticket and some even went so far as to substitute Mr. Meredith's name for Mr. Turner's.

The Richmond and Danville railroad has ordered a new ten wheel passenger engine from the Baldwin Locomotive Works.

RAIN GAMBLING.—"Rain gambling" is the latest vice to develop in India, and the police of Bombay and Calcutta are just now vigorously at work prosecuting rain gamblers in the local courts in an endeavor to show that the law includes this form of gambling. In Calcutta the "outfit" of the rain gamblers is in a street in the Barra bazar. Here into a small tank, four feet square and six inches deep, an ordinary water spout discharges rain water from the roof of a three-story building. In gambling with this apparatus bets are made at the beginning of the rainy season as to whether or not the tank will overflow at a given shower, to the extent the rain will overflow it when the water sheets come down in proper tropical style. It is alleged that on busy days in the bazar several lakhs of rupees change hands. This is surely vice made easy for the lay man.

COMPOSITION OF GEMS.—It is a singular fact that the most precious gems are composed of the most common substances. The diamond is the purest form of carbon and is identical in composition with ordinary charcoal without the impurities of the latter. The ruby, on the other hand, is nearly pure alumina, a substance found in profusion in every clay bank. The scientific name for crystallized alumina is corundum, and the gems comprehended under this designation are sometimes more valuable than diamonds of the same weight. The ruby, the sapphire, the oriental emerald, the oriental topaz, the oriental amethyst, the oriental aqua marina, the oriental chrysolite, the hyacinth and other precious stones are all alumina, the varieties of color being caused by inappreciable quantities of metallic oxides.

COURT OF APPEALS AT RICHMOND YESTERDAY.—Phillips against the Commonwealth. Set for 16th November. Shelton against Commonwealth. Set for 18th November.

Drier against Commonwealth; Mitchell against Commonwealth; Riggins against Commonwealth; Shifflet and others against Commonwealth; Lescall against Commonwealth; Forbes against Commonwealth; Byrd against Commonwealth; Field against Commonwealth. Continued to January term.

The court adjourned until Monday, the 14th instant.

FIGHT WITH A STEER.—Noticing a steer, which had escaped last week from a drove and sought refuge in Trevorton Mountain, Pa., glaring ominously at him from a rocky patch yesterday, Henry Schroyer, of Shanokin, raised his gun and fired, striking it in the forelegs. Then began a furious fight. The maddened beast rushed at him, but Schroyer backed against a tree and rammed the blade of a knife into its head. Schroyer clutched the steer's horns and just as he was succumbing a random thrust found the steer's heart and ended the battle.

Mr. Henry Hains, of Webb City, Mo., writes: "I am firmly convinced that Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is the best remedy in the world. My grand-daughter was seriously attacked with croup, but a few doses of the syrup entirely cured her." It never fails.

False Economy. Is practiced by people who buy inferior articles of food because cheaper than standard goods. Infants are entitled to the best food obtainable. It is a fact that the Gail Borden "Eagle" Brand Condensed Milk is the best infant food. Your grocer and druggist keep it.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET, Nov. 8.—There was little done on 'Change to-day and the sales made were at yesterday's quotations as follows: Wheat 60c 70; Corn 17c 50; Rye 50c 58; and Oats 26c 30.

BALTIMORE CATTLE MARKET, Nov. 7.—Swine.—There is a fair amount of receipts reported as only fair. The trade is generally reported as satisfactory to dealers. Quotations range for good hogs at $6.60, and rough hogs at $5.50 per 100 lbs. gross, best Western at $6.20.

Sheep and Lambs.—The trade is only fair, and values unchanged. We quote at $4.10 per lb. gross for sheep, lambs at $4.50 per lb. gross.

NEW YORK CATTLE MARKET, Nov. 7.—Cattle.—market lower; native steers $3.50, 5s, bulls and cows $1.00, 30 to 100 lbs. Calves—market steady; veals $5.75, 7s, grassers $2.30, 2.75. Western calves $2.90, 3.37 per 100 lbs. Sheep and Lambs—market steady; sheep $3.45, 4.50; lambs $3.10, 3.25 per 100 lbs. Hogs—market steady at $5.60 to $5.25 per 100 lbs.

He Was in a Hot Place Once.

Lieut. Senz, the second officer of the French gunboat Hussard, now lying in the North river, is a young man who has acquired considerable reputation for courage and enterprise among his fellow officers of the French navy. In January, 1885, when Gen. Briere de l'Isle, Commander-in-Chief of the French expedition to Tonquin, decided to carry the war into Chinese territory, he sent Commander Domine and 600 men to occupy the citadel of Thuy-quan. This fortress stands at the entrance of the passes which lead westward toward Yunnan, and was a point which had to be occupied in order to keep communication open between the French advance column and the sea. Two gunboats, 60 feet in length and of 15 feet beam each, armed with a six-inch breech-loading rifle and two Gatling guns, with a crew of 15 men all told, were assigned to duty in the Clear river to keep open communication between Thuy-quan and Sontay. One gunboat was commanded by Lieut. Senz, the other by Lieut. de Balaincourt.

The French column, in command of Gen. Negrier, had hardly started through the mountain passes when the Chinese army corps of the Yunnan, 12,000 strong, came down from Laokai toward the delta of the Red river and attacked Thuy-quan. The Chinese general besieged the citadel and expected to capture it easily on account of the greater numerical force of his army and the power of his modern artillery. But he soon found that he could do nothing as long as the two gunboats kept provisioning the fort. He therefore established four batteries of Krupp guns six miles below Thuy-quan, at a point on the river where the rocky shores narrowed and turned the stream into foaming rapids. On the most prominent rocks he built an additional battery of barbette guns. To make the place even more impassable, the Chinese commander filled two junks with stone and sank them in midstream.

When Senz and de Balaincourt found their retreat cut off they used their guns to help defend the fort. But at the end of the bombardment of thirty days two-thirds of the French garrison and most of the officers had been killed. A breach had been made in the walls at which Commander Domine had been compelled to repulse seven assaults of Chinese infantry, and still the siege artillery of the enemy was pounding away in attempts to make other openings in the defenses. The commander of Thuy-quan saw that something must be done to save the men still left.

In a few hours it was decided to send a gunboat down the river. The decks and machinery were protected by additional steel plates, and Lieut. Senz was put in command. The craft started down the stream, and in a short while had arrived in sight of the rapids. The officer rang for full speed, and steered straight ahead toward the obstructions. A shower of shells and cannon balls was sent from the shore batteries, and the protected infantry on the rocks kept up a hail of bullets. Lieut. Senz was wounded eight times, and thirteen out of the fifteen of his crew were killed. The steel protective plates were blown to atoms, and the whole top hamper of the boat was torn away, but the gunboat got by the barricade and reached Hai-Phong in safety. There Senz found Gen. Briere de l'Isle with 6,000 men. In three days, by means of forced marches, these troops reached Thuy-quan, and after a bloody fight relieved the fort, which must have surrendered before night.—N. Y. Sun.

FATHER MOLLINGER'S RELICS FOR SALE.—The announcement in Pittsburgh, Pa., that Fred and F. P. A. Mollinger, the nephews and heirs of the late Father Mollinger, will sell the latter's chapel and relics has stirred up trouble among the members of the Church of the Holy Name, at which the dead priest performed so many of his remarkable cures. Members of the congregation say the relics are the property of the church, and that in the event of the heirs attempting to sell or remove them the matter will be taken into court. The relics are valued by Catholics at about $200,000, and the two heirs are positive that they belong to the estate.

THE GREATEST TOBACCO USERS.—The Austrians consume more tobacco than any other nationality or race on the globe, civilized or savage. Recent investigation by eminent statisticians gives the number of pounds consumed annually by each 100 inhabitants of the different European countries as follows: Spain, 110 pounds; Italy, 128; Great Britain, 138; Russia, 152; Denmark, 224; Norway, 229, and Austria, 273 pounds.

RAISES HER OWN TEA.—Mrs. Increase Sumner, of Starke, Bradford Co., Fla., raises her own tea, and has treated her guests to cups of the home-made beverage, which was pronounced delicious. She says that owing to rapid growth she has to cut off the bushes every three or four years, while in China this is done only once in seven years. She gathers three crops a year; the first tea costs fifteen dollars a pound, but will stand a sea voyage, and never gets farther than Russia, but her bushes furnish it to her for the picking.

At Norristown, Me., W. B. Logan, a horse-shoer, made nine miniature horseshoes from the metal contained in one silver dime. Each shoe has the number of holes found in horseshoes of the ordinary size, but strange to say, the smallest embossed needle is too large to be used as nails in the miniature horseshoes. Logan has made affidavit that every one of these tiny silver crescents were made with the same hammer and punch used in making shoes for the largest sized horse. How it was ever done is a mystery.

THE PANAMA CANAL.—The Frenchmen interested in the Panama canal have applied to the Colombian government for an extension of one year in the time allowed for resuming work. This extension probably will be granted in case the applicants pay well for it. According to the agreement of the government with M. Napoleon Bonaparte Wyse, the Judicial Liquidator, the new company must resume work on or before February 25, 1893, or the concession will lapse.

EATEN BY A PANTHER.—Two weeks ago the wife and baby of a settler living near Deep Fork, in the Pottawatomie country, of Oklahoma, mysteriously disappeared. Saturday the head of the child and portions of the body of the mother were discovered in the lair of a panther in the woods several miles from the house. Fifty armed men are hunting for the panther.

A dispatch says that a passenger train on the Mexican National Railway crashed into an obstruction near Rinconada throwing the engine and three coaches off the track. The engineer and fireman were badly injured and twenty passengers seriously wounded.
